REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 1-17 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not teach or fairly suggest (taken in combination with the other claimed features) a voltage controlled variable capacitance device wherein the dielectric constant of a material forming said insulating film of said first varactor element is higher than the dielectric constant of a material forming the insulating film of the second varactor element (claims 8-14); and a voltage controlled variable capacitance device comprising an electrode formed on the insulating film and connected to a second terminal, said insulating film being sandwiched between the well and the electrode wherein the C-V curve of the first varactor element and the C-V curve of said second varactor element are different (claims 15-17).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
